Exhibitor Registration is Now Open!

This one-day CME activity will take place at the Marriott Dallas Las Colinas Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

This program is designed to provide attendees with current information on how to recognize symptoms and use current data to establish diagnosis and formulate the appropriate treatment plans for the management of gastrointestinal diseases. Several topics will be presented at a live, one-day symposium through lectures and question-and-answer sessions by experts in the field of gastroenterology.

This course is designed for gastroenterologists, GI surgeons, internists, family practice physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and nurses with an interest in gastroenterology and hepatology.

Topics Include:

- Dysplasia in IBD: Management and Surveillance
- Managing Complicated Crohn's Disease
- IBD Cases: Drug Positioning
- Gastroparesis: New Guidelines
- To Flip or Not: EndoFLIP in Motility Disorders
- Globus and Beyond: Esophageal Disorders and Gut-Brain Interaction
- When in Rome: Getting to Know Rome V
- A Deep Dive into the Small Bowel
- Tip of the Iceberg: Asymptomatic Celiac Guideline Update
- SIBO Management in 2027
- Improving Quality in Polyp Prevention, Detection, and Resection
- Bariatrics in the GLP-1 Era
- A Toolbox for Closure
- Optics: The North Star for Polyp Management

Benefits of Exhibiting...

Meet one-on-one to discuss your products and services with medical professionals who will attend this meeting.

Further benefits of exhibiting at What's New in GI 2027 Symposium include:

- Exposure to an estimated 100 attendees. Approximately 75% of the attendees are physicians.
- Ample intermissions between morning and afternoon sessions allow time for attendees to visit your exhibit.
- Breakfast and coffee breaks are held in the exhibit area during session intermissions to help increase traffic flow.
- Build visibility for your company in a competitive marketplace.
- Expand your prospective place and strengthen existing customer relationships.

We look forward to your support and participation.
